

40th Season!

ARCHAEOLOGY SUMMER COURSE

July 14 – 30, 2017

Earn a high school credit in 2 weeks!

Boyd  Archaeological
FIELD SCHOOL AT TRCA

www.boydfieldschool.org

Course Package

- An IDC4U credit upon completion
- Access to academics, licensed archaeologists and Aboriginal educators
- Actual excavation experience and training
- Hands-on experiences with flintknapping, spear throwers, fire by friction, fish trapping, foraging, and other ancient technologies
- Two weeks of dorm accommodations, meals, field trips and memories

Course Topics

- Archaeological theory
- Ontario pre-history
- The Huron-Wendat Confederacy
- Ontario First Nations cultures, past and present
- Contemporary Indigenous issues

Course Requirements

- Completion of Grade 10
- Principal or Teacher recommendation
- Recommended: Grade 11U or U/C social science

Details

- Located at Claremont Field Centre, Pickering
- Physical, outdoor work is required
- Special diets are accommodated
- Learning and mobility accommodations will be made

“This program helped make our daughter a stronger, more mature and focused individual.”

- Parents of Rachel, Course Graduate

Bursaries & Scholarships

The Carr-Reid Archaeology Bursary pays 50% tuition for one student. Check website for availability.

The Sebastien Scholarship for First Nations, Metis and Inuit Students. Two full scholarships available. See website for details.

How to Apply

Visit www.boydfieldschool.org and complete the form found on the registration page. Provide deposit as outlined.

Contact Aldo Missio at amissio@trca.on.ca or 905-832-2289 ext 223

www.boydfieldschool.org

“This course has been a life changing experience.”

- Shamim, 2010 course graduate

